Council Delegate Lomardo Aseret steps down as a member of the 25th Navajo Nation Council

Council Delegate Lomardo Aseret served as a member of the Budget and Finance Committee and the Navajo Hopi Land Commission.

WINDOW ROCK, Ariz. — On Monday, Council Delegate Lomardo Aseret announced that he is stepping down as a member of the 25th Navajo Nation Council, effective Sept. 30, 2024, to retire from public service and spend more time with family and loved ones.

Aseret has served as an elected member of the Council since January 2023, representing the communities of Houck, Klagetoh, Nahata Dziil, Tsé Si Ani, and Wide Ruins.

“I am very grateful for the opportunity to serve my communities and I thank the people who supported and helped me along the way. I feel we set the foundation for many initiatives that are in progress. I also thank all of my Council colleagues, staff members, and many others who I had the privilege of working alongside of. As I enter retirement, I look forward to spending more time with family,” said Aseret.

As a member of the 25th Navajo Nation Council, Aseret served as a member of the Budget and Finance Committee and the Navajo Hopi Land Commission.

“We are very appreciative of Delegate Aseret’s service to the Navajo people. His humble service and generosity serves as an example to us all. We pray for him and his family as they enjoy more time together,” said 25th Navajo Nation Council Speaker Crystalyne Curley.

In accordance with the Navajo Nation Election Code, once the Navajo Election Administration declares a vacancy the Speaker has the authority to appoint an individual, on an interim basis, to fill the vacant seat with the recommendation of the affected chapters, until a special election is held.
